First Reading

Isaiah 2:1-5

This vision of a world at peace under God challenges Christians to work for this new world as inaugurated by Christ.

The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In the days to come the mountain of the Temple of the Lord shall tower above the mountains and be lifted higher than the hills. All the nations will stream to it, peoples without number will come to it; and they will say: 'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the Temple of the God of Jacob that he may teach us his ways so that we may walk in his paths; since the Law will go out from Zion, and the oracle of the Lord from Jerusalem.' He will wield authority over the nations and adjudicate between many peoples; these will hammer their swords into ploughshares, their spears into sickles. Nation will not lift sword against nation, there will be no more training for war. O House of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 121

Response: I rejoiced when I heard them say: 'Let us go to God's house.'

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1. I rejoiced when I heard them say:'Let us go to God's house.'And now our feet are standingwithin your gates, O Jerusalem. | 2. It is there that the tribes go up,the tribes of the Lord.For Israel's law it is,there to praise the Lord's name.There were set the thrones of judgementof the house of David. |
| 3. For the peace of Jerusalem pray:Peace be to your homes!May peace reign in your walls,in your palaces, peace!             | 4. For love of my brethren and friendsI say: 'Peace upon you!'For love of the house of the LordI will ask for your good.   |

Second Reading

Romans 13:11-14

This contains a wake-up call, and urges us to turn away from the darkness of evil, and to walk in the light of Christ.

You know 'the time' has come: you must wake up now: our salvation is even nearer than it was when we were converted. The night is almost over, it will be daylight soon - let us give up all the things we prefer to do under the cover of the dark; let us arm ourselves and appear in the light. Let us live decently as people do in the daytime: no drunken orgies, no promiscuity or licentiousness, and no wrangling or jealousy. Let your armour be the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. Let us see, O Lord, your mercy and give us your saving help. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Matthew 24:37-44

This Gospel urges us to stay awake because we do not know the day or the hour when Christ will return.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'As it was in Noah's day, so will it be when the Son of Man comes. For in those days before the Flood people were eating, drinking, taking wives, taking husbands, right up to the day Noah went into the ark, and they suspected nothing till the Flood came and swept all away. It will be like this when the Son of Man comes. Then of two men in the fields one is taken, one left; of two women at the millstone grinding, one is taken, one left. 'So stay awake, because you do not know the day when your master is coming. You may be quite sure of this that if the householder had known at what time of the night the burglar would come, he would have stayed awake and would not have allowed anyone to break through the wall of his house. Therefore, you too must stand ready because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

Question of the week

(for Further Personal Reflection on these Readings)

What will you do during Advent so that others can see that you have put on the light of Jesus Christ?
