Anyone interested, please check Diocesan website for full details or poster on Noticeboard.

Christmas Social/Dinner at Tynemouth Golf Club, Friday 23 November. The final confirmation list at back of church has gone walkabout so unfortunately names will need to be re-signed so we can confirm numbers to the Golf Club. Apologies to everyone who previously signed. The cost will be £20 per person. Menu choices and further details will be given soon.

First Reading

Numbers 11:25-29

Joshua resents the fact that the gift of prophecy is now given to many others besides Moses, but Moses himself welcomes it.

The Lord came down in the Cloud. He spoke with Moses, but took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. When the spirit came on them they prophesied, but not again. Two men had stayed back in the camp; one was called Eldad and the other Medad. The spirit came down on them; though they had not gone to the Tent, their names were enrolled among the rest. These began to prophesy in the camp. The young man ran to tell this to Moses, 'Look,' he said, 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.' Then said Joshua the son of Nun, who had served Moses from his youth, 'My Lord Moses, stop them!' Moses answered him, 'Are you jealous on my account?' If only the whole people of the Lord were prophets, and the Lord gave his Spirit to them all!

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 18

Response: The precepts of the Lord gladden the heart.

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1. The law of the Lord is perfect,it revives the soul.The rule of the Lord is to be trusted,it gives wisdom to the simple.                    | 2. The fear of the Lord is holy,abiding for ever.The decrees of the Lord are truthand all of them just.         |
| 3. So in them your servant finds instruction;great reward is in their keeping.But who can detect all his errors?from hidden faults acquit me. | 4. From presumption restrain your servantand let it not rule me.Then shall I be blameless,clean from grave sin. |

Second Reading

James 5:1-6

We hear a strong condemnation of wealth, especially when it is obtained through exploitation of the weak.

An answer for the rich. Start crying, weep for the miseries that are coming to you. Your wealth is all rotting, your clothes are all eaten up by moths. All your gold and your silver are corroding away, and the same corrosion will be your own sentence, and eat into your body. It was a burning fire that you stored up as your treasure for the last days. Labourers mowed your fields, and you cheated them - listen to the wages that you kept back, calling out; realise that the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. On earth you have had a life of comfort and luxury; in the time of slaughter you went on eating to your heart's content. It was you who condemned the innocent and killed them; they offered you no resistance.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 9:38-43.45.47-48

This contains a lesson in tolerance and in the avoidance of scandal and occasions of sin.

John said to Jesus, 'Master, we saw a man who is not one of us casting out devils in your name; and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him.' But Jesus said, 'You must not stop him: no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us. 'If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink just because you belong to Christ, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward. 'But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. And if your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that cannot be put out. And if your foot should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. And if your eye should cause you to sin, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell where their worm does not die nor their fire go out.'

Question of the week

(for Further Personal Reflection on these Readings)

What are the three most important values motivating your daily decisions?
