TODAY is the 100th Anniversary of the ending of World War I, there will be a special Stations of the Cross video shown in St Mary's Hall at 4.30pm. All are welcome.

Book of Remembrance is available in church where you can write the names of your deceased loved ones. The book will remain open until end of November.

Service of Remembrance for the parishes in our Partnership. This will take place at St Edward's, Whitley Bay at 7pm on Thurs 15th Nov.

We will celebrate Deacon Tom's 25th Anniversary, with special cake and a drink, after Mass in the hall at St Mary's next Sun. 18 Nov. Anyone willing to help with this, please see Fr Martin.

Parents of Children in School Year 4 or above who would like their children to train to be altar servers are invited to let Fr Martin know.

The CAFOD Fast Day collection raised £1081.45. Thank you for your generosity.

St Mary's Blessed Sacrament Chapel - the recent fire risk assessment requires us to move the curtains for the Chapel if we wish to retain the votive candles by the statue of Our Lady. A proposal is to re-hang the curtains inside the Chapel. If you have any comments on this please let Fr Martin know.

Parish Dinner at Tynemouth Golf Club 23 Nov - donations for the raffle of chocolates and wine would be greatly appreciated. Please leave at back of church for collection. Many thanks.

The Re-wiring of St Oswin's Church: The new lights have been commissioned. Work progresses on completing the painting of the building and upgrading the fire exit. Weekday services resume at St Oswin's from Wednesday – Thank you for your patience.

Festive Afternoon Tea - Fri 7th Dec in St Mary's Hall. A social get-together with refreshments, music & fun! In order to have an idea of numbers, there is a list at back of church to sign if you would like to come along. No admission charge but donations for charity welcomed. Anyone who is unable to get to St Mary's church hall, please indicate along with an added contact number and arrangements will be made to pick you up.

Edinburgh Christmas Market – Weds 12th Dec. A larger coach has been booked so we have a few extra seats available on a first come basis. Anyone who still has not paid for their seat on the coach, please see Sue Oxley or Kath Kelly as soon as possible.

First Reading

1 Kings 17:10-16

In the middle of a famine, a poor widow shares the last of her food with the prophet Elijah, and far from losing by so doing, she is enriched.

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said, 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives,' she replied, 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel: Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth.' The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 145

*Response: My soul, give praise to the Lord.

|-----|--|----|---|
| 1.. | It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free. | 2. | It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind,
who raised up those who are bowed down,
It is the Lord who loves the just,
the Lord, who protects the stranger. |
| 3. | The Lord upholds the widow and orphan
but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age. | | |

Second Reading

Hebrews 9:24-28

Through his death Christ has taken our sins upon himself and has opened for us the door to salvation.

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. Even if you have to die, says the Lord, keep faithful, and I will give you the crown of life. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 12:41-44

In the eyes of others the offering of the widow was the least, but in the eyes of Christ it was the greatest.

Jesus sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called to his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

Question of the week

What are you willing to give out of love for God that would be a hardship for you?
