Bishop Robert will be visiting our partnership on Wednesday 10th July. He will take the opportunity to meet with each individual priest, active or retired. In the evening he will preside at an early evening partnership Mass which will be held in St Cuthbert's Church, North Shields. Once more details become known, I'll pass them on to you, but in the meantime ask you to note the date and better still, mark it as an event you will wish to attend.

Partnership News: Small groups of parishioners from all of our partnership parishes attended an information evening on Wednesday evening facilitated by Amy Cameron, the diocesan Discipleship Co-ordinator. There was lots of lively discussion as participants were led through what it is that we have achieved already in a variety of settings, and also the areas that we need to explore as time goes by. More information as it comes to us.
