"The Holy Spirit frees hearts chained by fear. The Holy Spirit overcomes all resistance. To those content with half measures, the Holy Spirit inspires whole-hearted generosity. The Holy Spirit opens hearts that are closed. The Holy Spirit impels the comfortable to go out and serve. The Holy Spirit drives the self-satisfied to set out in new directions. The Holy Spirit makes the lukewarm thrill to new dreams". (Pope Francis)

First Reading

Deuteronomy 4:32-34.39-40

Moses reminds the people of the close and loving relationship God established with them, and of the obligations and blessings that flow from such a relationship.

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors - all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt? Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today, so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 32

Response: Happy the people the Lord has chosen as his own.

|---|---|
| 1. The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. | 2. By his word the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all the stars.
He spoke; and they came to be.
He commanded; they sprang into being. |
| 3. The Lord looks on those who revere him,
on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death
To keep them alive in famine, | 4. Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you. |

Second Reading

Romans 8:14-17

Through the in-dwelling of the Holy Spirit, we have become children of God and co-heirs with Christ his son.

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Matthew 28:16-20

In his last appearance to his apostles, Jesus commissions them to preach the Gospel to all peoples, and promises to be with them to the end of time.

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'
