A Diocesan Prayer for Missionary Discipleship
Heavenly Father, when your only begotten Son Jesus Christ rose from the dead, he commissioned his followers to “Go and make disciples of all nations” and you remind us that through our Baptism we are made sharers in the mission of the Church. Empower us by the gifts of the Holy Spirit to be courageous and enthusiastic in bearing witness to the Gospel, so that the mission entrusted to the Church, which is still very far from completion, may find new and effective expressions that bring life and light to the world. Help us make it possible for all peoples to experience the saving love and mercy of Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen

Catholic churches in England are open for communal worship provided the necessary steps are taken to keep people safe. Government regulations are that those attending church must wear a face covering. (those under 11 years of age are exempt or if you have a genuine medical reason). You must not come to church if you have any symptoms of Covid-19, or are feeling unwell. While the pandemic endures there is no obligation to attend a Sunday Mass.

Due to limited space we strongly recommend that you book to attend Mass for Sundays. To book please ring the dedicated phone line:

First Reading

Job 3:1.8-11

God alone has mastery over the sea.

From the heart of tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said: 'Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther: here your proud waves shall break.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 106

Response: O give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures for ever.

|--|--|
| 1. Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters. These men have seen the Lord's deeds, the wonders he does in the deep. | 2. For he spoke; he summoned the gale, tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven and back into the deep; their soul melted away in their distress. |
| 3. Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress. He stilled the storm to a whisper: all the waves of the sea were hushed. | 4. They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired. Let them thank the Lord for his love, the wonders he does for men. |

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 5:14-17

Christ showed his love for us by dying for us. We are to imitate that love.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them. From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old has gone and now the new one is here.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 4:35-41

By calming a storm Jesus shows his divine power and his care for his disciples.

With the coming of the evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side'. And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm! And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him'.
