First Holy Communions 2022. Parents, of children who are baptised Catholic and are in school year 4, can enroll their child to prepare for reception of Holy Communion. The enrolment form is once again attached to the newsletter on the partnership website.

Congratulations and Welcome to JENSON RAY BURNS AND JAMES COLIN BAILEY
who were baptised last Sunday

We wish Fr John McElhone well as he retires from St Aidan's and St Bernadette's parishes in Wallsend. We wish him well in the years ahead. Fr David Smith at St Columba's, Wallsend, has been appointed Parish Priest of the three Wallsend churches.

The Parish/Partnership Journey in Faith/RCIA begins on Tuesday October 19th at 7pm in St Edward's Church. These meetings are for anyone wishing to learn more about the Catholic Church with a view to possibly becoming a Catholic or entering in to full communion with the Catholic Church, and also those who are already Catholic but wish to have a fresh look at their faith. Forms are available to enroll for this after Mass.

The New Guidelines issued by the Diocese mean that people visiting Church for services are still requested to sanitise their hands and wear face-covering. Social distancing is now reduced to one metre. These guidelines will be reviewed again by the Diocese in November. It is no longer necessary to book to attend Mass.

You must not come to church if you have any symptoms of Covid-19, or are feeling unwell. While the pandemic endures there is still no obligation to attend a Sunday Mass.

Why not set up a monthly Standing Order to make your contribution towards the upkeep of the church? The information you need is as follows: The church account is with HSBC:

Name: DHN Tynemouth Our Lady & St Oswin
Account Number: 12011336
Sort code: 40-34-18

Access to the Weekly Newsletter online: You can view and download this newsletter each week from the partnership website: www.northtynesidecatholic.org.uk. It is posted around 12noon each Friday.

CAFOD Fast Day: Envelopes can be returned to the collection buckets in the coming weeks please. If preferred, donations can be made by text: Any amount from £1 - £20 texting CAFOD followed by the amount you wish to donate. Thank you.

DO NOT LEAVE IT BEHIND IN THE CHURCH

First Reading

Genesis 2:18-24

God made man and woman for each other. The bond of marriage means they are no longer two but one.

The Lord God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make him a helpmate.' So from the soil the Lord God fashioned all the wild beasts and all the birds of heaven. These he brought to the man to see what he would call them, each one was to bear the name the man would give it. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of heaven and all the wild beasts. But no helpmate suitable for man was found for him. So the Lord God made the man fall into a deep sleep. And while he slept, he took one of his ribs and enclosed it in flesh. The Lord God built the rib he had taken from the man into a woman, and brought her to the man. The man exclaimed: 'This at last is bone from my bones, and flesh from my flesh! This is to be called woman, for this was taken from man.' This is why a man leaves his father and mother and joins himself to his wife, and they become one body.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 127

Response: May the Lord bless us all the days of our life.

1. O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!
 By the labour of your hands you shall eat.
 You will be happy and prosper.
2. Your wife will be like a fruitful vine
 in the heart of your house;
 your children like shoots of the olive,
 around your table.
3. Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord.
 May the Lord bless you from Zion
 In a happy Jerusalem all the days of your Life!
 May you see your children's children. On Israel, peace!

Second Reading

Hebrews 2:9-11

By entering fully into human life, and by experiencing the bitterness of death, Christ became a brother and a saviour to all people.

We see in Jesus one who was for a short while made lower than the angels and is now crowned with glory and splendour because he submitted to death; by God's grace he had to experience death for all mankind. As it was his purpose to bring a great many of his sons into glory, it was appropriate that God, for whom everything exists and through whom everything exists, should make perfect, through suffering, the leader who would take them to their salvation. For the one who sanctifies, and the ones who are sanctified, are of the same stock; that is why he openly calls them brothers.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 10:2-16

Christ teaches that the marriage bond comes from God and is therefore indissoluble.

Some Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, 'Is it against the law for a man to divorce his wife?' They were testing him. He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' 'Moses allowed us' they said 'to draw up a writ of dismissal and so to divorce.' Then Jesus said to them, 'It was because you were so unteachable that he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female. This is why a man must leave father and mother, and the two become one body. They are no longer two, therefore, but one body. So then, what God has united, man must not divide.' Back in the house the disciples questioned him again about this, and he said to them, 'The man who divorces his wife and marries another is guilty of adultery against her. And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another she is guilty of adultery too.' People were bringing little children to him, for him to touch them. The disciples turned them away, but when Jesus saw this he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. I tell you solemnly, anyone who does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it'. Then he put his arms round them, laid his hands on them and gave them his blessing.

Question of the week

(for Further Personal Reflection on these Readings)

What could keep you from embracing the kingdom of God like a little child?
