First Holy Communions 2022. Parents, of children who are baptised Catholic and are in school year 4, can enroll their child to prepare for reception of Holy Communion. The enrolment form is once again attached to the newsletter on the partnership website.

Today is Prisoners' Sunday: We are asked to pray for those in prison, for their children and families who are also affected. We also remember all victims of crime. This year we are asked to campaign to ensure that prison is not used as a place to send people who need clinical and therapeutic healthcare to address trauma and mental illness. The Parish/Partnership Journey in Faith/RCIA begins on Tuesday October 19th at 7pm in St Edward's Church. These meetings are for anyone wishing to learn more about the Catholic Church with a view to possibly becoming a Catholic or entering in to full communion with the Catholic Church, and also those who are already Catholic but wish to have a fresh look at their faith. Forms are available to enroll for this after Mass.

The New Guidelines issued by the Diocese mean that people visiting Church for services are still requested to sanitise their hands and wear face-covering. Social distancing is now reduced to one metre. These guidelines will be reviewed again by the Diocese in November. It is no longer necessary to book to attend Mass.

You must not come to church if you have any symptoms of Covid-19, or are feeling unwell. While the pandemic endures there is still no obligation to attend a Sunday Mass.

Why not set up a monthly Standing Order to make your contribution towards the upkeep of the church? The information you need is as follows: The church account is with HSBC:

Name: DHN Tynemouth Our Lady & St Oswin
Account Number: 12011336
Sort code: 40-34-18

Access to the Weekly Newsletter online: You can view and download this newsletter each week from the partnership website: www.northtynesidecatholic.org.uk. It is posted around 12noon each Friday.

CAFOD Fast Day: Envelopes can be returned to the collection buckets in the coming weeks please. If preferred, donations can be made by text: Any amount from £1 - £20 texting CAFOD followed by the amount you wish to donate to 70580. Thank you.

First Reading

Wisdom 7:7-11

This is a passage in praise of wisdom. It is presented as a speech of Solomon.

I prayed, and understanding was given me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing. I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her silver ranks as mud. I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps. In her company all good things came to me, at her hands riches not to be numbered.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 89

Response: Fill us with your love that we may rejoice.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants. | 2. In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Give us joy to balance our affliction for the years when we knew misfortune. |
| 3. Show forth your work to your servants; let your glory shine on their children. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands. | |

Second Reading

Hebrews 4:12-13

God's word is effective and is a source of true wisdom for us.

The word of God is something alive and active; it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely: it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide from him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for revealing the mysteries of the Kingdom to mere children. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 10:17-30

Here a good young man who refuses to follow Christ because he is unwilling to part with his wealth.

Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth. Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them, 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another, 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said, 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.'

Question of the week

(for Further Personal Reflection on these Readings)

How can the pleasures & comforts of this world become barriers to your relationship with God?
