Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle Lourdes Pilgrimage from Friday 29th July - Friday 5th August 2022. In order to aid the planning stages, it would be helpful if you could indicate your interest. Please contact lourdes@rcdhn.org.uk for an 'expression of interest' form.

Remembering our Loved One's: During November parishioners will be able to add names to the list of those who have died since the pandemic began into our memorial book. This list of names will be taken to the Cathedral where Bishop Robert will celebrate a Requiem Mass on Saturday 27th November at 11.00am. We will celebrate a Memorial Mass for those who have died since the pandemic began at St Mary's Church on Saturday 20th November at 10.30am.

Congratulations to Kath Peffers who this week celebrated her 90th Birthday

Local churches are hoping to give out hampers to the young homeless people in our area. Our parish has been asked to donate 60 chocolate selection boxes. There will be a box at the back of both churches on Sundays of 21st and 28th of November for this.

The Guidelines issued by the Diocese mean that people visiting Church for services are still requested to sanitise their hands and wear face-covering. Social distancing is now reduced to one metre. These guidelines will be reviewed again by the Diocese in November. It is no longer necessary to book to attend Mass.

You must not come to church if you have any symptoms of Covid-19, or are feeling unwell. While the pandemic endures there is still no obligation to attend a Sunday Mass.

Why not set up a monthly Standing Order to make your contribution towards the upkeep of the church? The information you need is as follows: The church account is with HSBC:

Name: DHN Tynemouth Our Lady & St Oswin
Account Number: 12011336

Prayer for World Mission Sunday

Father of all goodness, mercy and love, you call people of all faiths to live and work together for the coming of your Kingdom on earth. Make us instruments of your peace, and cultivate in us the fertile seed of your healing love. Create in us the spirit of understanding, acceptance, and respect for one another, irrespective of our differences. Stir within our hearts a renewed sense of reverence for all life. Give us the vision to recognise your spirit in every human being, and help us to break the cycle of violence by realising that peace begins with me. Amen.

First Reading

Jeremiah 31:7-9

The prophet foretells the return of God's people from exile in Babylon. Even the most helpless will share in the joy of this great event.

The Lord says this: Shout with joy for Jacob! Hail the chief of nations! Proclaim! Praise! Shout! 'The Lord has saved his people, the remnant of Israel!' See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth; all of them: the blind and the lame, women with child, women in labour: a great company returning here. They had left in tears, I will comfort them as I lead them back; I will guide them to streams of water, by a smooth path where they will not stumble. For I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born son.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 125

Response: What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad.

1. When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage,
it seemed like a dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
on our lips there were songs.
2. The heathens themselves said: What 'marvels
the lord worked for them!'
What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.
3. Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage,
as streams in dry land.
Those who are sowing in tears
will sing when they reap.
4. They go out, they go out, full of tears, carrying seed for the sowing
they come back, they come back, full of song, carrying their sheaves.

Second Reading

Hebrews 5:1-6

This reading sets out the things that are required of a priest, and shows how Christ meets these perfectly.

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness. That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. I am the light of the world, says the Lord, anyone who follows me will have the light of life. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 10:46-52

Jesus hears the cry of a blind man and gives him back his sight.

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called the blind man. 'Courage,' they said, 'get up; he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him, 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.
