PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, in Baptism you called us by name and made us members of your family, the Church. Help all your people to know their vocation in life, and to respond by living a life of holiness. For your greater glory and for the service of your people, raise up dedicated and generous men who will serve as priests for the Church of Hexham and Newcastle. Send your Spirit to guide and strengthen our communities, our seminarians and all who are discerning their vocation. Amen

First Reading

Genesis 14: 18-20

Melchizedek, a pagan priest-like king, gives gifts of bread and wine to Abraham. In Christian tradition that bread and wine were taken to prefigure the Eucharist.

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing: 'Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.' And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

Responsorial Psalm:

Psalm 109

Response: You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.

|---|--|
| 1. The Lord's revelation to my Master:
'Sit on my right:
I will put your foes beneath your feet,' | 2. The Lord will send from Zion your sceptre of power:
rule in the midst of all your foes. |
| 3. A prince from the day of your birth
on the holy mountains;
from the womb before the daybreak
I begot you. | 4. The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.
'You are a priest for ever,
a priest like Melchizedek of old.' |

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

When we celebrate the Eucharist we do not merely make Christ present, but re-enact the death and resurrection by which he saved us.

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread which has come down from heaven, says the Lord.
Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Luke 9:11-17

Jesus provides an extraordinary meal for those who followed him into the desert. In the Eucharist the Church continues the mission of Jesus – teaching, healing and nourishing God's People.

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing. It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

Question of the week

(for Further Personal Reflection on these Readings)

When have you been most blessed and when have you felt a little "broken" in your service to others?
