PRAYER FOR SEA SUNDAY: O Mary, Star of the Sea, light of every ocean, guide seafarers across all dark and stormy seas that they may reach the haven of peace and light prepared in Him who calmed the sea. As we set forth upon the oceans of the world and cross deserts of our time, show us, O Mary, the fruit of your womb, for without your Son we are lost. We pray that on life's journey, in heart and mind, word and deed, in days of turmoil and in days of calm, we will always look to Christ and say, 'Who is this that even wind and sea obey him?' Our Lady of Peace, pray for us! Bright Star of the Sea, guide us! Amen.

The Order of Mass can be found on Page 4 of your Hymn Book

First Reading

Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses urges the people to obey God's law, not as something imposed from outside them, but as something that springs up from inside themselves.

Moses said to the people: 'Obey the voice of the Lord your God, keeping those commandments and laws of his that are written in the Book of this Law, and you shall return to the Lord your God with all your heart and soul. For this Law that I enjoin on you today is not beyond your strength or beyond your reach. It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, "Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, "Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" No, the Word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 68

Response: Seek the Lord, you who are poor, and your hearts will revive.

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1. This is my prayer to you,my prayer for your favour.in your great love, answer me, O God,with your help that never fails:Lord, answer, for your love is kind;in your compassion, turn towards me | 2. As for me in my poverty and painlet your help, O God, lift me up.I will praise God's name with a song;I will glorify him with thanksgiving.         |
| 3. The poor when they see it will be gladand God-seeking hearts will revive;for the Lord listens to the needyand does not spurn his servants in their chains.  | 4. For God will bring help to Zionand rebuild the cities of Judah.The sons of his servants shall inherit it;those who love his name shall dwell there. |

Second Reading

Colossians 1:15-20

Paul asserts that the Christ is at the origin of creation and is now truly risen from the dead.

Christ Jesus is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation, for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers - all things were created through him and for him. Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity. Now the Church is his body, he is its head. As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice, says the Lord,
I know them and they follow me. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Luke 10:25-37

The familiar parable reveals that the 'name of God is mercy'.

There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, 'Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the Law? What do you read there?' He replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' 'You have answered right,' said Jesus. 'Do this and life is yours.' But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his own mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said, "and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have." Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands' hands?' 'The one who took pity on him,' he replied. Jesus said to him, 'Go, and do the same yourself.'

Question of the week

(for Further Personal Reflection on these Readings)

When have you gone out of your way to help a stranger in need?
