Prayer for Prisoners Sunday

Lord Jesus Christ, You have come so that we may have life to the full, Listen to our prayers for all in prison and their families. Touched by your spirit, May they find newness of heart and be open to that new life that is found only in you. May they know care, and receive support from those around them. May they find new purpose in serving you in their brothers and sisters. We also pray for all victims of crime. May they be supported and receive the assistance which they need, through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

First Reading

2 Kings 5:14-17

On being cured of leprosy, Naaman comes to believe in the true God, and is lavish in his gratitude towards the prophet Elisha.

Naaman the leper went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child. Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. 'Now I know' he said 'that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant.' But Elisha replied, 'As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing.' Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, 'Since your answer is "No," allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any god except the Lord.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 97

Response: The Lord has shown his salvation to the nations.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1. Sing a new song to the Lordfor he has worked wonders.His right hand and his holy armhave brought salvation.    | 2. The Lord has made known his salvation;has shown his justice to the nations.He has remembered his truth and lovefor the house of Israel. |
| 3. All the ends of the earth have seenthe salvation of our God.Shout to the Lord all the earth,ring out your joy. |  |

Second Reading

2 Timothy 2:8-13

Paul tells Timothy that the work of preaching the Gospel will result in hardship, opposition and persecution.

Remember the Good News that I carry. 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal - but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it. Here is a saying that you can rely on: If we have died with him, then we shall live with him. If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him. If we disown him, then he will disown us. We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful, for he cannot disown his own self.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life:
you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Luke 17:11-19

The story of ten people who were cured of leprosy by Jesus, and how only one came back to thank him.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

Question of the week

(for Further Personal Reflection on these Readings)

Whose generosity do you tend to take for granted? How will you change this?
