The Wearing of Face-covering is a personal choice. If you need to, please sanitise your hands on entry. You must not come to church if you have any symptoms of Covid-19 or carry any infectious disease. Please be sensitive towards those who, for medical reasons, still wish to follow social distancing.

Liturgy Formation Refresher courses and Days of Reflection are available to book at <https://bit.ly/Liturgy2022>. If you would like to train to help with Children's Liturgy, reading at Mass or help as an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, please let Fr Martin know.

Sunday Tea and Coffee at St Mary's: We are looking for more volunteers to help serving refreshments after 11am Mass. If you'd like to help, please sign your name against a date on rota in church hall. Thank you.

NB: There will be no Children's Liturgy on Sunday October 23rd (Half Term) back on the 30th.

APF Red Mission Boxes: If any parishioners haven't been able to bring their boxes to Church, please contact your collector who will arrange for your box to be picked up. Thank you.

First Reading

Exodus 17:8-13

The Israelites gain a victory over their enemies through the power of God which comes to them as a result of the prayer of Moses.

The Amalekites came and attacked Israel at Rephidim. Moses said to Joshua, 'Pick out men for yourself, and tomorrow morning march out to engage Amalek. I, meanwhile, will stand on the hilltop, the staff of God in my hand.' Joshua did as Moses told him and marched out to engage Amalek, while Moses and Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill. As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage; when he let his arms fall, the advantage went to Amalek. But Moses' arms grew heavy, so they took a stone and put it under him and on this he sat, Aaron and Hur supporting his arms, one on one side, one on the other; and his arms remained firm till sunset. With the edge of the sword Joshua cut down Amalek and his people.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 120

Response: Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. I lift up my eyes to the mountains:
from where shall come my help?
My help shall come from the Lord
who made heaven and earth. | 2. May he never allow you to stumble!
Let him sleep not, your guard.
No, he sleeps not nor slumbers,
Israel's guard. |
| 3. The Lord is your guard and your shade;
at your right side he stands.
By day the sun shall not smite you
nor the moon in the night. | 4. The Lord will guard you from evil, he will guard your soul.
The Lord will guard your going and coming
both now and for ever. |

Second Reading

2 Timothy 3:14 - 4:2

Paul instructs Timothy to abide in the sound doctrine which he has been taught since childhood, and to be zealous in preaching the message of Jesus.

You must keep to what you have been taught and know to be true; remember who your teachers were, and how, ever since you were a child, you have known the holy scriptures- from these you can learn the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and can profitably be used for teaching, for refuting error, for guiding people's lives and teaching them to be holy. This is how the man who is dedicated to God becomes fully equipped and ready for any good work. Before God and before Christ Jesus who is to be judge of the living and the dead, I put this duty to you, in the name of his Appearing and of his kingdom: proclaim the message and, welcome or unwelcome, insist on it. Refute falsehood, correct error, call to obedience-but do all with patience and with the intention of teaching.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Luke 18:1-8

Jesus exhorts his disciples to pray continually and never to grow discouraged.

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the need to pray continually and never lose heart. 'There was a judge in a certain town' he said 'who had neither fear of God nor respect for man. In the same town there was a widow who kept on coming to him and saying, "I want justice from you against my enemy!" For a long time he refused, but at last he said to himself, "Maybe I have neither fear of God nor respect for man, but since she keeps pestering me I must give this widow her just rights, or she will persist in coming and worry me to death." And the Lord said, 'You notice what the unjust judge has to say? Now will not God see justice done to his chosen who cry to him day and night even when he delays to help them? I promise you, he will see justice done to them, and done speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find any faith on earth?'

Question of the week

(for Further Personal Reflection on these Readings)

Whose needs might you be failing to listen to right now?
