Fr Martin's Induction Mass will take place at St Patrick's Church this Friday 15th November at 6.30pm followed by refreshments in the parish hall.

NEW TRANSLATION OF THE LECTORY From the First Sunday of Advent, 1 December, the Catholic Church in England and Wales will start using a new translation of the Lectory based on the Catholic Edition of the English Standard Version (ESV) of the Bible. This will be for all the readings at Mass, the sacraments and funerals. Two sets of the new Lectory have arrived, one for each church. Each set has four volumes covering the Sunday and weekday readings for Advent and Christmas, Lent and Easter, Ordinary Time, Feasts of the Saints, Commons including Our Lady and Ritual Masses and Masses for the Dead. The total cost is £1390, £695.00 for each set. The books are beautifully made, as would be expected for God's Word, and will last for many years. Parishioners are invited to contribute towards the cost of the new Lectory by making a donation in memory of their deceased loved ones. The names of your loved ones will be inscribed in the front of the new lectionaries as a sign of dedication and prayer. Envelopes are available at the back church on which to write the names of your loved ones, and seal your donation inside. All donations gratefully received. Mgr Andrew

Parish Social and Dinner: 13th December at Tynemouth Golf Club, 7pm for 7.30pm. Cost £30. If you are interested please sign the list at back of church and collect a menu and envelope. Please complete menu choices and place in sealed envelope together with payment in box provided. Donations for the raffle (Bottles, Chocolates etc) would be gratefully appreciated. Please leave in Church porch for collection. Thank you.

First Reading

1 Kings 17:10-16

In the middle of a famine, a poor widow shares the last of her food with the prophet Elijah, and far from losing by so doing, she is enriched.

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink. She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. Please he said, bring me a scrap of bread in your hand. As the Lord your God lives, she replied, I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die. But Elijah said to her, Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel: Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth. The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 145

Response: My soul, give praise to the Lord.

1. It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free.
2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raised up those who are bowed down, It is the Lord who loves the just, the Lord, who protects the stranger.
3. The Lord upholds the widow and orphan but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age.

Second Reading

Hebrews 9:24-28

Through his death Christ has taken our sins upon himself and has opened for us the door to salvation.

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. Even if you have to die, says the Lord, keep faithful, and I will give you the crown of life. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 12:38-44

In the eyes of others the offering of the widow was the least, but in the eyes of Christ it was the greatest.

Jesus sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called to his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

Question of the week

What are you willing to give out of love for God that would be a hardship for you?
